From these precious books."Irian," he said, "do you hear the leaves?".He woke, as he always did, in his room in the Great House. He did not understand why the ceiling was low and the air smelt fresh but sour and cattle were bawling outside. He had to lie still and come back to this other place and this other man, whose use-name he couldn't remember, though he had said it last night to a heifer or a woman. He knew his true name but it was no good here, wherever here was, or anywhere. There had been black roads and dropping slopes and a vast green land lying down before him cut with rivers, shining with waters. A cold wind blowing. The reeds had whistled, and the young cow had led him through the stream, and Emer had opened the door. He had known her name as soon as he saw her. But he must use some other name. He must not call her by her name. He must remember what name he had told her to call him. He must not be Irioth, though he was Irioth. Maybe in time he would be another man. No; that was wrong; he must be this man. This man's legs ached and his feet hurt. But it was a good bed, a feather bed, warm, and he need not get out of it yet. He drowsed a while, drifting away from Irioth..So it proved. Indeed, to Golden's amazement, Master Hemlock sent back a scrupulous two-fifths of the prenticing-fee. With the packet, which was delivered by one of Golden's carters who had taken a load of spars down to South Port, was a note for Diamond. It said, "True art requires a single heart." The direction on the outside was the Hardic rune for willow. The note was signed with Hemlock's rune, which had two meanings: the hemlock tree, and suffering..After Golden had gone out, she found her son in the counting-room going through ledgers. She."A little gift," Diamond said indistinctly. "Enough for tricks.".I started running in the direction indicated, without knowing to what -- I still hadn't the.iron pot. "How do we get all that back to the village?" he asked the hinny. She looked after the.address:.the topmost room. Not a voice, not a face. It was difficult to feel uneasy in an ordinary-looking town on a sweet spring morning, but in such silence he must wonder if he was indeed in a plague-stricken place or an island under a curse. He went on. Between a house and an old plum tree was a wash line, the clothes pinned on it flapping in the sunny breeze. A cat came round the corner of a garden, no abandoned starveling but a white-pawed, well-whiskered, prosperous cat. And at last, coming down the steep little street, which here was cobbled, he heard voices..fairy tale. It had been a kind of profanation. I walked, and her voice pursued me. I made a turn,.That was where Hound found him, miles away from the valley, west of Samory, on the edge of the great forest of Faliern..bones need the sun. The wizard stood still in the doorway of his house, between the dark room and.said. "It's at daybreak a name should be given. And then there ought to be music and feasting and.paying much attention to him unless he frightened them. He tried not to do that. He had no wish or.She came to the door and muttered some kind of greeting. They daunted her, these Masters of Roke,."I didn't understand," Irioth said, "about the others. That they are other. We are all other. We."Straining," Heleth said, his hand still absently, gently patting the dirt as one might pat a scared cow. "Quite soon now, I think.
